WE SHOULD SMILE.

The thing that goes the farthest toward making life worth while. That costs the least and does the most, is just a pleasant smile. The smile that bubbles from the heart that loves his fellow men. It's full of worth and goodness, too, with manly kindness blent. It's worth a million dollars and it doesn't cost a cent. There is no room for sadness when we see a cheery smile. It always has the same good look—it's never out of style. It nerves us on to try again when failure makes us blue—Such dimples of encouragement are good for me and you. So smile away; folks understand what by a smile is meant—It's worth a million dollars and it doesn't cost a cent.

An Appeal For Community Service.

It is not only the duty of a citizen to indorse and accept the institutions which are essential to the successful up building of his community or town, but it is also his duty to enthusiastically create, as far as in his power lies, a sentiment for those things. This can be done only when he attends such institutions and gives to them the encouragement of his presence, his support, and his hearty cooperation at every point where he can further the causes for which they stand.

What do you think of a man who claims to be a very good citizen, and at the same time sets his foot down on the Sunday schools and churches, and fails to lend his cooperation to the proper development of character in the rising generation?

It is well known by men of intelligence, that Christianity has been a great factor in creating sentiment for those things which have contributed most to the happiness and welfare of the people of America. It is the one power that has made it possible for this present generation to inherit the blessings of liberty and of civilization, which are so dear to us. Then, what about a fellow that sets his foot on the church, which is the greatest exponent of Christianity in the world? Is he really a benefit to his community? This is a thing for you to carefully consider.

What are you living for anyway? A man is a failure, if his life and general influence is not a constant rebuke to all the great evils about him, and this cannot be unless he faithfully stands by the best institutions of his community and his country.

Why not turn a listening ear to the gospel of righteousness?

A. R. Gibbons.

COALINGA, CALIF.

Coalinga, Cal.
May 4, 1920.

Dear Editor:

If you will spare me a little space I will write a few items to the Sentinel.

I enjoy reading the paper because it tells me what my friends are doing in dear old Jackson county.

All of the home boys here are at work, and times are good. Some of the boys are leaving these oilfields, and going to New Mexico.

I saw W. B. Dudley in town the other day. He is the son of J. M. Dudley who lives on Gainesboro R-1. W B had a fist and skull fight with a Mr. Elder in Coalinga Saturday. Elder is now in the hospital, but Dudley did not get a scratch. Dudley has the name of being as good a man as there is in Coalinga, and is peaceable with everybody. He is a boy that everybody thinks a lot of. He works for the Standard 28, Coalinga.

Mr. Elder's condition is much improved, and is getting along all O. K. He is a young fellow, 27 years old.

We have had some hard wind storms here, which blew down a large number of oil rigs and done considerable other damage.

Would like to hear from all my friends and loved ones at home thru the Sentinel.

A Jackson County Boy.

Among the many things which help to make up the happiness of home, are the weekly visits of this paper; try it.

Ethel Hall Cleared of Murder Charge.

Ethel Hall, charged with the murder of Raphael Purlmutter on a warrant sworn out by Alfred Smith, who is now in the Davidson County jail on the same charge, was acquitted at the preliminary hearing before Squire J. R. Douglas at Cookeville last Monday.

Testimony showed that the accused had nothing to do with the murder, establishing her alibi that she was at her home at the time of the murder.

John Kirby, who was brought to Cookeville from the Davidson County jail to testify in the trial, reiterated his former statement to the effect that Purlmutter was killed by Alfred Smith, Jim Madwell and Greasy Robinson.

O. C. Myers, a preacher who had been assisting Evangelist Belt at the Ryman Auditorium at Nashville, testified that Kirby had told him the same story in the Davidson County jail.

At the close of the trial Daisy Wells on whose testimony the warrant was sworn out against Ethel Hall, was arrested on the charge of perjury. Upon her failure to make bond, she was placed in the Putnam County jail. She was tried before Squire Hodge Saturday morning, and bound over to Criminal Court.

This is the second case in which was charged perjury since the beginning of the Purlmutter trial. K. M. Kuykendall, the other person charged with perjury, was bound over to the next session of Criminal court.

LET MRS. MARY GRAVES TELL YOU HER POULTRY RAISING EXPERIENCE.

"Three years ago I bought an incubator, this year I've made money. Rats stole my baby chicks. Didn't know until a friend gave me a cake of RAT-SNAP. Next morning found two dead rats in henhouse. Kept finding them. Suddenly they disappeared altogether. It's the only sure rat killer." Take Mrs. Graves advice. Three sizes, 25c, 50c, $1.00. Sold and guaranteed by M. P. Bailey & Son, Quarles & McCawley, Anderson & Haile, Gainesboro.

DETROIT, MICH.

Detroit, Mich.
May 9, 1920.

Dear Editor:

You will find enclosed one dollar for which you will please send J. M. Jones, 212 Mt. Elliott Ave., the Sentinel for one year. Mr. Jones was raised in Granville, Jackson county, and has several relatives at that place. So come on Granville with the news.

Well, I will tell you a little about Detroit. Times are very good, but the cost of living is mighty dear. When you pay your room rent you feel like you was being robbed, only you have a receipt for your money.

Hello! Dr. McCain, I hear you are going to pay Detroit a visit in the near future. We will be glad to welcome you to our city.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Dudley visited the writer last week.

Sanford Mayberry is still having lots of sickness in his family. His daughter Belva Lee is in Receiving Hospital at present.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Birdwell, of 913 Congress St., is coming on fine with their rooming house.

W. S. Mayberry and S. B. McCain are figuring on drawing a pension off of the United States Rubber Co., as they work every day, and when they have worked 20 years they get a pension. So hang on boys it is a good place to work.

Oplis Mayberry keeps looking a way down south, and talks lots of Dug Smallwood and Jimmie Spurlock. Some attraction.

All of Jackson county folks here have been attending a 10 days meeting, conducted by Rev. Harry Jackson, of Toronto, Canada. He had 20 or 30 additions.

Hello, L. W. Haney, of Coalinga, Cal. How is everything in the golden west? How is my friend Haywood Johnson getting along.

Miss Lillie Maybery, of Cookeville R-8, your letter was interesting. Write again, I am always glad to read a letter from home folks.

The writer's girls and Lawrence Birdwell's girls are visiting W. S. Mayberry and family today.

Myself and others intend to pay Jackson county a visit in the near future.

Wishing the Sentinel and its many readers success.

Your very truly,
John W. Wilmoth
1023 E. Jefferson, Ave.

SUGAR CREEK.

Born, to Tom Moss and wife, a girl.

There were several at church at this place Sunday.

Mrs Bob Moss is very sick at this writing.

Farmers are very busy planting and plowing over corn.

There was preaching at Fairview Sunday. Some of the people of this place attended.

D D Lundy, of Mont., who has been visiting relatives here, left for Akron, Ohio, Friday.

Eston Spivey, wife and son, D D Lundy, wife and little daughter, visited Turney Bybee and wife, Sunday.

Bertha and Agnes Murphy visited Mrs Lucy Bybee, recently.

Mrs. J. H. Stafford was called to Nashville, May 12, on account of the sudden death of her sister-in-law, Mrs Mollie Maddox Rillbrey, age 33 years, wife of Tildon Rillbrey, age 43, who succeeded her to the grave one year and 6 months. Both are buried in Mt. Olivet cemetery.

Who is the greatest woman in all history? One hundred and fifty school teachers recently answered the question, and with enthusiasm and unanimity the judges awarded the prize to the one who made this reply: "The wife of a farmer of moderate means who does her own cooking, washing, ironing, sewing, brings up a family of boys and girls to be useful members of society and has time for intellectual improvement."

It does us all good to get a peep into our neighbors' homes and lives occasionally, not for idle curiosity, but for the good it may do us. Most wives think they are the busiest women in the world, and have more worries than any other housekeeper. When you feel this way, my friend, put on your bonnet and go and sit around your neighbor for an hour or so, or what is still better, spend the day, eat a meal away from home. You will come back refreshed in mind and body and feel that you would not exchange your burdens for theirs, no, not even to be rich like them.

DEMOCRATIC MASS MEETING.

M., for the purpose of electing a new executive committee, selecting delegates to the Tennessee State Convention, and to transact such other business as might properly come before said meeting. All Democrats are urged to be present.
